

DELHI JAL BOARD, GOVT. OF NCT OF DELHI

Financial Assistance Scheme for Promoting Rooftop Rain Water Harvesting System

Date: 04-08-2021

1. Objective

The scheme aims to promote installation of Rain Water Harvesting (RWH) systems by providing financial assistance to eligible consumers of Delhi Jal Board.

2. Eligibility

The scheme is applicable to DJB consumers including:

- Group Housing Societies
- Private / Recognized Schools
- Hospitals
- Charitable Institutions
- NGO Buildings
- Individual residential properties

having plot size of 100 sq. m. and above.

3. Financial Assistance

Plot Size vs Assistance:

- 100–199 sq. m.: 50% of cost or Rs. 10,000 (whichever is less)
- 200–299 sq. m.: 50% of cost or Rs. 20,000
- 300–399 sq. m.: 50% of cost or Rs. 30,000
- 400–499 sq. m.: 50% of cost or Rs. 40,000
- 500 sq. m. and above: 50% of cost or Rs. 50,000

4. Guidelines

- RWH system must be constructed as per DJB guidelines.
- Designs must be approved by DJB/registered architect.
- Applications submitted to concerned Executive Engineer (Maintenance).
- Financial assistance released after committee approval.
- Assistance may be withdrawn if system is found non-functional.

5. Required Documents (Annexure-A)

- Proof of ownership / registration
- Design & layout plan
- Payment vouchers / bills

- Undertaking (Annexure-C)
- Certificate of adequacy and functionality

6. Committee Structure

- Chief Engineer (Concerned) – Chairman
- SE (Concerned) – Member
- Joint Director Revenue – Member
- EE (Maintenance) – Member

7. Undertaking & Claim

Applicants must submit undertaking on plain paper and claim proforma after completion of work.

This document is a cleaned text-only version of the original scanned notification.